Weisberg Testifies

Before Orleans Jury

F 5/6/67

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Orleans Parish Grand Jury has heard Harold Weisberg, Hyattstown author, whose book, "Whitewash," was critical of the Warren Commission report on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Orleans Parish Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison, who has also challenged the commission report, and four assistants accompanied Weisberg into the grand jury room.

There was no word of what evidence Weisberg might have given the jury, which is continuing an investigation of Garrison's charges that a plot was hatched in New Orleans for the 1963 assassination in Dallas.

Garrison has charged Clay L. Shaw, 54, New Orleans businessman, with complicity in a conspiracy in the Kennedy slaying.
